CHANGES IN THE ORIOLES.

Baltimore, April 27 (Special).-Baker, a pitcher of the Orioles, was released to-day. His wretched work in the box yesterday, when he gave the Bostons a "picnic" for one inning, convinced Manager Hanlon that he is not up to the standard. Hawk eigned to-day, and will join the team May 1. He is to re-ceive a big advance in salary over last season. Hanion was forced to take him, as the club is sadly in need of another pitcher.

THE OLD HUNTINGTON TRACK SOLD. PURCHASED FOR $25,000 - TO BE USED FOR RUNNING RACES.

The sale of the grounds of the Huntington Pair Association, which includes the old Huntington trotting track, was completed yesterday. Representatives of both sides to the sale met yesterday afternoon in the office of Brigham & Baylis, No 21 Nassau-st., and, after a short consultation signed the bill of sale. The price paid was $25,000 The property has been on the market for some time, and when an offer was made the Board of Directors, which consists of David Woodhull Conk-Directors, which consists of David Woodhull Conklin, Jesse Carli, George M. Conkiln, Joseph Irwin, John Fleet, George S. Brush, William N. Raylis, Jenkins Van Shaick, Louis V. Beil, James M. Brush and C. S. Burr, met and by a vote of ten to two decided to accept the proposition made. The main movers in the purchase were Colonel John Rough, of Brooklyn, and S. R. Tohm, Several prominent racing men are said to be interested in it, and it is their intention to transform the old trotting track into a racetrack for theroughbreds. The property consists of about sixty acres of land, with an oval-shaped mile track. A good grandstand and a number of buildings are now on the property. The purchasers will form a corporation, and will begin at once on the necessary alterations and improvements. At least $25,00 is to be spent on the property. The new owners will make arrangements with the Long Island Railroad to put in a siding to connect the racetrack direct with the railroad.

At the Brooklyn track yesterday Banquet and Don Alonzo were worked a mile together. The gelding appeared to have the best of the work throughout. The time was 1:48%. Leonawell was

MR. WORTHINGTON CHARGED WITH FORGERY As a result of a petition for the dissolution of th oublishing firm of the Worthington Company, No. 747 Broadway, Richard Worthington was arraigned in the Tombs Police Court yesterday, charged with perjury. The complaint was made by Joseph J. Little, a printer, of No. 8 Aster Place. He charge that on March 12 and 21 Worthington testified befor Mr. Willis, as referee, at No. 115 Broadway, that in January last year he discounted certain notes made by Margaret Worthington at the East River made by Margaret Worthington at the East River National Bank, and when they matured he paid the notes by checks drawn by Margaret Worthington.

Zenias E. Newall, cashier of the East River Bank, testified that no such notes were ever discounted by his bank.

Mr. Worthington said he was fifty-eight years old, born in England, and lived at Sea Cliff, L. I.
He was required to furnish $1,000 ball for examination on Monday. The bond was furnished by Samuel Stenson, a commission merchant, No. 1,000

INVESTIGATING THE DEATH OF PRISCO.

A Coroner's jury has been impanelled to investigate the death of Anthony Prisco, the Italian padrone and member of Tammany Hall, whose mangled body was found lying across the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad at Franklin Park, N. J., at an early hour on Thursday morning. The N. J., at an early hour on Thursday morning. The jury viewed the body at Coroner McDede's morgue, in New-Brunswick, yesterday, and adjourned to meet at the Middlesex County Courthouse on May 7. Prisco's brother and wife have been in New-Brunswick, and are both inclined to the theory of murder. Mrs. Prisco says her husband was thirty-three years old, and had been in the United States sixteen years. He had left his house in Jersey City ten days ago, and though he wrote to his wife on Wednesday, she was greatly worried about him, as she knew he had many chemies. She said he always went heavily armed, but no weapon was found on his body. She did not know how he came to be short of money. Detectives are assisting the Coroner's jury.

There was a well-attended revival meeting last vening in the St. Bartholomew Mission, in East Forty-second-st. Nearly 400 homeless men had been gathered in the mission for a free supper, and most of them remained to attend the meeting, which was led by Colonel Hadley. Many women were in the galleries. Miss Wray, the singing evangelist, and Colonel Hadley made addresses and a number of recent converts told of their experience. Prayers and the singing of hymns divided the time with the speaking. After the meeting nearly 200 men remained to pray for a time with the leader. gathered in the mission for a free supper, and most

ABLE, SAYS BANK EXAM-

INER JUDSON. A number of depositors gathered in front of the closed Harlem River Bank, at No. 2007 Third-ave., yesterday morning, and made anxious inquiries as to the time when they could withdraw their money from the bank. Some of them said that they could ill afferd to do without their money while the examination of the bank's affairs were being made, although they thought they would lose nothing in the end. Some of the tradesmen in the neighborhood, who were depositors, and had drawn checks against their accounts in the bank on Thursday, posted potters on the front of the bank saying that they would personally cash the checks at their places of business.

Mr. Hinckley, the cashier of the bank, was at his post early and answered many questions. He said there was not the slightest doubt that the depositors would be paid in full some time, but he
